

Dear FCC,
Please do not give in to the special interests and lobbyist concerning policies towards instant weather and traffic on satellite radio. I live in the rural mountains of Southwest Virginia. There is little quality content from the over-the-air radio networks in this part of the state. Our geography also limits the quality of radio broadcasts from terrestrial signals. Satellite radio has been a godsend and provides areas such as this a tremendous service.

Ken McCreery